

PRESS RELEASE

In September 2009 The Salvation Army will be hosting a Teen MOPS (Mothers of Pre-Schoolers) group for teen moms and their children at the Courthouse on Water Street in downtown Kemptville! Starting September 22, the group will meet every Tuesday evening beginning at 6:30 and it is free of charge. Children will be lovingly cared for on-site by volunteers who are screened and trained.

MOPS International is a faith-based organization committed to meeting the needs of moms. Teen MOPS is dedicated to meeting the specific needs of teenaged moms offering love and encouragement in a non-judgmental environment. As well, young moms will have the opportunity to learn new skills and gain a better understanding of how to fulfil their role as mom, while they are still learning and growing themselves.

Teen MOPS provides a break for moms, interesting speakers and discussion opportunities. As well, moms can take part in creative activities and connect with other moms!

If you would like to be involved in this exciting opportunity or you know a young mom who may benefit, please contact Wendy at 613 489 1455 or Stephanie at 613 258 3583 or www.kemptvillesalvationarmy.org.

Giving Hope Today

